

FURNITURE AND THE DOMESTIC INTERIOR: 1500–1915

Friday, October 27, 2017

The Frick Collection | 10:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Fragonard Room, The Frick Collection, photo: Michael Bodycomb.

This emerging scholars program is a collaboration between the Furniture History Society and The Frick Collection. The Furniture History Society would like to acknowledge the generous support of the Oliver Ford Trust.

Symposium is free but registration is required.

The Frick Collection
1 East 70th Street
New York, NY 10021

- 10:15 a.m. Welcome and Introduction
Ian Wardropper, Director, The Frick Collection
Adriana Turpin, Grants Committee Chair, Furniture History Society
- Session I
Wolfram Koeppel presiding
Marina Kellen French Curator in the Department of European Sculpture and Decorative Arts, The Metropolitan Museum of Art
- 10:25 From Private Collection to Public Museum: Second Empire Furniture in the Collection of the Bowes Museum, County Durham
Simon Spier, PhD candidate, University of Leeds & The Bowes Museum
- 10:50 Trompe-l'œil? Early Modern Table Clocks in the Shape of Everyday Objects
Susanne Thuerigen, PhD candidate, Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich
- 11:15 Coffee Break in the Garden Court
- 11:30 The “Camerella:” A Bed Inseparable From Its Chamber
Pasquale Focarile, 2017 Eva Schler Fellow, The Medici Archive Project
- 11:55 Wood and Plaster “Moors” in Early Modern Venetian Household Inventories 1600–1800
Hannah Lee, PhD candidate, Queen Mary University of London
- 12:20 p.m. Lunch on your own
- Session II
Charlotte Vignon presiding
Curator of Decorative Arts, The Frick Collection
- 1:30 “The Completest Triumph of Barbarous Taste:” Reevaluating Russian Rococo Furniture 1730–1775
Philippe Halbert, PhD student, Yale University
- 1:55 “Moving Art:” Furniture and Mobility in Eighteenth-Century France
Lilit Sadoyan, PhD candidate, University of California, Santa Barbara
- 2:20 Making Sense of Carmontelle’s Chairs
Margot Bernstein, PhD candidate, Columbia University
- 2:45 Closing Remarks
- 3:00 Coffee in the Garden Court